men driving," he underlined. (Continued from Page A-1) "And the statistics don't tell us who was at fault."

Rush hour, roughly 3 to 6 p.m., continues to receive a top rating in the number of accidents chalked up. Next most dangerous time of day to drive is from 1 to 3 a.m., Sergeant Bishop said.

Anyone particularly anxious to avoid a traffic accident will want to hit the road sometime between 5 and 7 a.m., when the fewest mishaps are recorded, Sergeant Bishop related.

Municipal Court Gets New Judge

Tom Fredericks was enrobed as Municipal Court Judge for the South Bay Judicial District in Torrance yesterday during ceremonies in the courtroom of Presiding Judge George R. Perkovich Jr.

Judge Fredericks was appointed by Governor Reagan to fill the four offices of the Municipal Court allowed by the state. The vacancy was created when Judge Raymond Choate was elevated to the Superior Court.

Judge Choate installed his successor yesterday.

Judge Fredericks said that although the Judicial District has been in existence for a relatively short time, he is impressed with the fact a tradition of extremely high quality of judges has been created. "I am sure that to other lawyers closely associated with this judicial district, this is a very apparent fact," said the new judge.

Judge Fredericks said he hopes he can continue that high quality and see that justice is dispensed in the same manner.

The new judge is the former city attorney for Hermosa Beach.

Following court ceremonies, a lunch was held in his honor at the Plush Horse through the sponsorship of the South Bay Bar Association and the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce.
